Data Processing Notice Regarding Admission to Matches

1. Where to Find Information Related to Data Processing?

HFF has prepared this notice in accordance with the provisions of the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (hereinafter referred to as “GDPR” or “Regulation”) with the specific purpose to make the data management processing operations transparent in a comprehensible manner.

This notice contains key information relating to the specific data processing (legal basis and purpose of processing, scope of processed data, duration and your rights), supplemented by the document titled General Information on Data Processing, which explains your rights and how to exercise them, the obligations related to data security and the rules in the amendment of the notice. The document titled General Information on Data Processing is available here: here.

2. Presentation of the Cases of Processing and Scope of Processed Data

The organiser is entitled to verify the identity of the participants during admission. The verification is carried out on the basis on the basis of the registered tickets and identification data processed for the purpose of ticket purchase, which can be accomplished by presenting the ID card or Club Card/Football Card.

Pursuant to Section 72/B of the Sport Act, the data (being the same as the data recorded during the ticket purchase) can be used for the purpose of criminal or infringement proceedings instigated due to any crime or infringement on the venue of the sports event or while accessing or leaving the venue of the sports event or for exclusion from participation at the sports event.

Based on Section 72 (2) of the Sport Act, the organizer must demand any person to stop such behaviour, who jeopardizes the organisation of the event or the safety of the person or property of others, or cheers or spurs in a racist way or by inciting hatred or intimidating others, or making others indignant, or does not spur in a fair way.

Section 72 (3) of the Sport Act provides that if a person who wants to enter or participates in a sports event does not comply with the admission requirements during the sports event or fails to stop jeopardizing the holding of the sports event or the safety of the person or the property of others, or cheering or spurring in a racist way or by inciting hatred or intimidating others, or making others indignant, or spurring in a unfair way despite the organizer’s warning, shall not be admitted respectively shall be removed from the sports event.

If a person is prevented from entering or removed, the organizer shall invite him to identify himself to ensure that preventing admission applies to the entire venue of the match. In order to refuse admission, the HFF processes the serial number of the ticket to invalidate it. If the person fails to comply with the demand, the organizer shall immediately notify the police for carrying out the identity check.

The organizer may detain the person until the end of the third hour of the notification, provided, that he is detained in the field of vision of a video recording device operated on the venue. In such a case, video recordings are made of the detention. The processing of the data recorded by the video recording device shall be governed by the rules on camera surveillance (you can find the data processing notice on camera surveillance here).

3. Duration of Data Processing

Unless required in order to conduct other proceedings (e.g. investigation of a complaint, making a police report, etc.), the verification involves data processing only at the time of the verification and is based on data already stored on the ticketing system and/or the data in the document suitable for the proof of identity.

The admission system used by the HFF does not process personal data but may only store the bar code on the ticket or pass.

Data is erased from the ticketing system three working days after the match unless the competent authority invited the HFF to retain the data for an additional period up to 30 days, and the personal data is erased within 3 working days after the event ends.

In case of retention, the HFF shall process the data recorded by the camera surveillance system in accordance with the data processing notice concerning camera surveillance.

If admission is denied by the HFF or organizer because the participant is under the punishment of exclusion, barring from visiting sports events, prohibition as an infringement or any similar decision of a foreign sports organization, authority or court, the organizer may process the personal data recorded during the admission for up to 30 days.

If, in the course of refusing admission, the data of the spectator is recorded by the organizer under Section 71 (3) of the Sport Act, the data will be processed after the match for the purpose of conducting the exclusion or other proceeding in accordance with the laws, relevant notices and its own documents management policy.

After the lapse of 3 working days of the event, the HFF will not be able to link other personal data or a person to the serial number of the ticket recorded when admission was denied.

4. Purpose of Data Processing

The purpose of processing is the implementation of ticketing and admission corresponding to the stadium security requirements (sale of registered tickets) under Sections 72/B and 72 (2) to (4) of the Sports Act, and compliance with the obligations in Section 71 (3) of the Sports Act.
